

Craig Barnes has been with the City of Garland Human Resources Department for over 14 years where he is currently the Workforce and Administrative Services Manager. His management responsibilities include COGnet (Citywide Intranet), various HR systems such as the Applicant Tracking System (ATS) as well as the Human Resources Information System (HRIS). Craig acts as the Assistant Director of Civil Service for the City and has served in many other HR capacities including Operations Analyst, Claims Analyst, Training Coordinator, and employee event coordinator. Prior to joining the City of Garland, Craig worked in the finance and banking industry for 10 years.

Craig holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Abilene Christian University and is a member of the International Public Management Association for Human Resources (IPMA-HR) with an IPMA-CP (Certified Professional) designation, Society of Human Resources Management (SHRM), Texas Municipal Human Resources Association (TMHRA), and the Highline Customer Association (HLCA). He is currently serving as a trustee with TMHRA as well as a board member of the HLCA.